

PURCHASE ORDER ATTACHMENT Q-132

ELECTRICAL, ELECTRONIC AND ELECTROMECHANICAL (EEE) PARTS COUNTERFEIT AVOIDANCE AND DETECTION REQUIREMENTS

1. Seller shall be one of the following:
 - a. An authorized or franchised distributor
 - b. The Original Equipment Manufacturer (OEM)
 - c. The Original Component Manufacturer (OCM)
 - d. An aftermarket manufacturer authorized by the OEM or OCM
2. Authorized or franchised distributors must provide documented traceability of the parts to the OEM or OCM. Traceability requirements may be met by providing a Certificate of Conformance or documentation from the manufacturer that includes lot date code information.
3. Aftermarket manufacturers must provide evidence of OEM or OCM authorization.
4. Seller shall implement an approach to counterfeit detection and avoidance meeting the requirements of AS5553, revision in effect at time of Buyers purchase.
5. Seller shall insure these requirements are flowed to all sub tier suppliers providing parts and materials required to complete Buyers Purchase Order.